Directions to New Brunswick from Newark Airport (EWR):

- * At Newark Airport, look for signs for AirTrain.
- * You will take an AirTrain to Newark Liberty International Airport Train Station to connect to a NJ Transit train on the Northeast Corridor to New Brunswick (heading south towards Trenton).
- * Purchase a NJ Transit ticket from any NJ Transit ticket machine located at the airport near the entrances to AirTrain stations. Ticket covers both the NJ Transit portion of your ride as well as the AirTrain portion.
- * You will need to show your ticket twice, to transfer through the fare gates and to the conductor on the NJ Transit.
- * When you exit AirTrain at Newark Liberty International Train Station follow the signs to NJ Transit trains. You will go up one level, pass through the fare gates and go down one level onto the NJ Transit train platforms.
- * The trains usually leave from platform 5, about every half hour (more frequently during peak hours). It will take approximately 30 minutes to New Brunswick.
- * Once in New Brunswick, it is a 10 min. walk to the Hyatt Regency Hotel (or take a cab at the train station).
